'Let Business Alone', Critics Snap Back at Truman Prosperity Forecast

President Renews Tax Plea

Sees No Need For Alarm

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman's confident forecast of continued prosperity brought this reaction today from his Capitol Hill critics: the best way to help this nation's business is to let it alone.

The President also renewed his request for a $4,000,000,000 tax boost—a proposal which appeared to be picking up support from Democrats, but only if necessary to keep the treasury out of the red. There is a lot of opposition, however.

Mr. Truman told his news conference current price drops are only the leveling-off that everybody has been hoping for, and he spoke confidently of the business outlook. He said the business situation is nothing to be alarmed about.

Some critics agreed that the levelling off is healthy. But they said the President's economic control program, if approved by Congress, might turn a healthy recession into a depression.

While Mr. Truman took the economic temperature, there were these other developments:

1. Buying interest in the New York stock market sharpened yesterday and the market moved ahead for the best overall advance in six weeks.

2. At Cleveland, the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad announced temporary layoffs for more than 4,000 employes in four areas. A spokesman blamed declining passenger business and slower movement of coal due to a mild winter.

3. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad ordered a five-day furlough late this month for 2,251 of its shop employes. A continued decline in freight business was given as the reason.

4. At Detroit, the Kaiser-Frazer automobile company announced it will close its Willow Run plant, where 7,000 work, for three weeks while plans are made for production of two new utility model cars.

5. The United States Chamber of Commerce advised employers to resist fourth-round wage hikes lest they reverse the downward trend in the cost of living.

6. A majority of the 17 private-industry economists attending a Capitol Hill conference spoke out against the administration's request for higher taxes and wage-price allocation controls. They contended such action now would hamper business expansion.

Pumps Again 'Free' Pupils

For the second time this week a Richland county school has been closed because of a break in water supply.

Today, students at Springfield township school are having a vacation. Yesterday afternoon the electric water pump broke down and pupils had no water. The school was closed today.

Plans had to be made, too, for postponing the first annual "Play Day" for all girl students of Richland county, which was scheduled at the school for tomorrow.

L. C. Stingel, superintendent of Springfield township schools, said the "Play Day" probably would be held in a couple of weeks.

Toe-Tweaked Wife Given Her Freedom

CINCINNATI — (INS) — Thirty-three-year-old blonde Dorothy Zenni of Cincinnati had her divorce today because ex-husband Ralph, 34, twisted her toes.

Common Pleas Judge George E. Kearns granted the decree on the grounds of extreme cruelty yesterday when Mrs. Zenni said

"He would twist my toes until I screamed."

Mrs. Zenni said her former husband was not a professional wrestler.

Davis Quits Race For Councilman

Finds Law Bars Teachers From Office

Robert Y. Davis, Johnny Appleseed junior high school teacher, today withdrew as a candidate for the Republican nomination for councilman-at-large.

He said he learned he would not be eligible to hold the council post, if nominated and elected, because of his teacher's job.

His withdrawal leaves five men in the race for the three GOP councilman-at-large nominations. They are Harry Hollingsworth and George C. Kyle, incumbents; Robert E. Sneeringer, Rev. Andrew J. Payne and Thomas P. Flood.

In announcing his withdrawal, Davis said:

"After consulting with several legal authorities, I have found that a teacher cannot be a councilman and still retain his position in the schools.

"I regret to find that teachers are denied the opportunity accorded members of other professions as I would have enjoyed participating in such democratic processes in the community.

"I would like to express my appreciation," Davis continued, "for the cooperation and encouragement extended to me by many citizens of Mansfield."

Davis remarked that he hoped the fact that teachers are barred from political life would be "brought out" by his withdrawal.

The Ohio Code states that: "Each member of council shall not hold any other public office or employment except that of notary public or member of the state militia."

The code goes on to state that any person publicly employed who is elected by the public at large "shall forthwith forfeit his office."

Mansfielders Enjoy Bright, Blue Weather

While Mansfield enjoyed its second consecutive day of bright, sparkling weather, a new cold wave and severe storms today hit sections of the far west.

Under a blue sky and brilliant sunshine, the mercury climbed to a balmy 50 degrees at noon today after a low of 33 last night.

Cloudy and colder weather is in prospect for tomorrow with rain or snow likely by night.

This year's old story of blowing and drifting snow was repeated today in Wyoming. New falls of snow, accompanied by strong winds, were described by the Denver weather bureau office as threatening to spread by tonight into northern Colorado and Western Nebraska.

In Montana a cold wave swept the state, following thawing weather in many sections.

Driver Perishes In Flaming Truck

BELLEFONTAINE — (INS) — One Cincinnati truck driver was burned to death and another critically injured today when their trucks crashed and burned south of Bellefontaine.

The dead man, burned beyond recognition, was identified by the CCC Freight company of Cincinnati as Dale Gassman.

RECORD THRONG—Evidence of the fine packing job done by fans at last night's Simpson-Appleseed basketball game is this section of the north side bleachers. Even floor space was at a premium in front of the stands and many more are standing to the rear of the balcony seats. 1,700 See Big Game

Cage Contest Draws Record Throng

Johnny Appleseed won the basketball game, but the fanfare at last night's junior high city championship tilt was decidedly a deadlock.

Some 1,700 fans, a majority of whom were Appleseed and John Simpson students, jammed every nook and cranny of the Senior high gymnasium for over three hours for the affair. Actual play lasted only about half that long, but most of the students took up their positions long before game time.

No actual count was made of the attendance but it was believed the largest crowd ever to see a game in the gym.

Several hundred arrived too late to get in and had to return home or wait outside to hear the result. Many hung around the door just to get an occasional score from someone coming out.

Inside bands of both schools blared forth from opposite ends of the floor and junior size cheerleaders from both schools attempted to organize the mass cheers out of the constant roar.

Simpson fans never gave up and when their team made its last minute comeback they threatened to pour onto the floor.

A few seconds after the final gun gave Appleseed a 30-29 victory for its second city championship in history, the playing floor was filled with cheering fans.

The Pioneers' Coach Jimmy Lymper was hoisted to the shoulders of the players and spent several minutes fighting his way through the crowd to the dressing room.

Auto Hits Tree, Youth Badly Hurt

COLUMBUS—(INS)—Harold E. Reeves, 25, of Columbus was critically injured early today when he lost control of his car and crashed into a large tree just north of Columbus.

The state highway patrol said Reeves was traveling north on Olentangy boulevard when his car swerved across the road and was demolished as it smashed headon into the tree

Doctors Protest $25 Levy

Battle Shapes Up On Medical Assessment

CHICAGO—(INS)—The American Medical association's top officers accused 136 physicians today of "an unfortunate disservice" to their profession in their protest over AMA medical care policies.

The blast was published in the current issue of the "Journal of the American Medical Association." It was a reply to criticism of the AMA's "failure to develop a program for improved medical care in view of the government's compulsory insurance proposals."

The sharply-worded rebuff to the protesting physicians asserted:

"The circulation and issuance of the doctors' protest is an unfortunate disservice to the cause of the medical profession of the United States. . . .

"The protest is not based on knowledge or fact as to the policies or activities of the American Medical association."

The reply was signed by AMA President R L Sensenich, South Bend, Ind., and all officers and by Board Chairman Elmer L. Henderson of Louisville, Ky., and all trustees.

The 136 physicians asserted last week they would refuse to pay a special $25 assessment levied by the AMA "if the funds are to be used for propaganda and legislative lobbying instead of developing a comprehensive medical care program."

The AMA stated "at least 85 per cent of the medical profession is in sympathy and is voluntarily contributing the assessment" and denied the fund would be used for lobbying or as a "slush fund." The statement declared:

"This fund will be devoted chiefly to education of the American people as to present high quality of medical service in our country; as to the inevitable deterioration, as shown in other countries associated with a governmental system of medical care, and also to accelerate in every way possible the enrollment of the people in voluntary hospitalization and medical care plans."

Find Hidden Jewel Cache

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal. — (INS) — Police today held $120,000 in stolen valuables and a third woman in the life of Gerard Graham Dennis, dapper "Raffles" believed to have stolen over half a million dollars in his "Blue-book burglary" career.

The disclosure of Dennis' coast-to-coast operations came when California police raided a plush home he maintained in fashionable Beverly Hills, finding stolen loot and an attractive girl who had posed as Dennis' wife.

The raid followed a tip from police in Cleveland where Dennis confessed yesterday to nationwide forays against jewel treasuries of famous people.

The raiders found several tin cans filled with platinum and gold scrap, jewelers' equipment and burglar tools in closets that also contained a mink coat, gems and other valuables.

Dennis was arrested on the tip given by pretty Gloria Horowitz, a 20-year-old model, to Philadelphia police in July 1947.

Warns That America On Red Time Table

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Dr. Peter Zenkl, who was vice premier of Czechslovakia under President Eduard Benes, warned yesterday the United States is on the communist time table.

Dr. Zenkle said in a speech "it was the Czechs in 1948. I do not know who it will be in 1949 and 1950. But I assure you that the United States in on the schedule."

Diners Still Paying 1948 Figure

Price Decline Fails to Reach Menus

The cost of a meal in most Mansfield restaurants is still at the same level in effect last summer, despite the recent decline in the cost of food.

Only three of 13 establishments contacted by The News-Journal reported that their menus reflect the drop in the cost of food.

The restaurant managers said they have felt no drop in the wholesale food prices, or the drop was so slight that it did not warrant a change in their menus.

Of the three restaurants reporting drops in menu prices, one said chicken dinners were down from $1.50 to $1.25 and steak dinners down 25 cents.

Two others reported drops of six to eight cents on short order sandwiches and a slight decline in spaghetti dinners.

One restaurant manager said he already has felt an upward trend in prices again and has begun to pay more for his food than he did a few weeks ago.

Another proprietor told The News-Journal that he would not lower his prices because of the recent loss of livestock in the western blizzards.

He felt that this loss would soon push meat prices up again. And another's comment was that the downward trend is not permanent and he therefore saw no need to lower his prices.

Tappan To Make Electrics

Experiments On New Line

Tappan Stove company, Mansfield's fifth largest industry, is planning to add electric ranges to its production schedule, it was learned today.

Company officials said no definite date has been set for putting the ranges into production for commercial distribution, but already work is under way on test models.

Experiments are being conducted on the new product which would be added to the regular line of gas stoves now being marketed.

Tappan, last month laid off approximately 200 workers, and observers saw, in the planning for a new product, a move to restore full employment schedule when the electric ranges can be put into production.

The Tappan company is one of the oldest in Mansfield. It was moved here in 1889 from Bellaire where the firm was founded as the Eclipse Stove company in 1881. The name was changed to Tappan Stove company in 1920.

Will Veto Vet Pension

Measure Against Truman's Budget

WASHINGTON — (INS) — President Truman will veto the veterans pension bill sponsored by Rep. Rankin (D) Miss., if Congress approves the measure.

This was disclosed today by administration leaders in Congress who stated that the President would have no other course left to him.

They pointed out that the legislation, which would give veterans of World Wars I and II monthly pensions of $90 at age 65, is not in accord with the President's budget and termed it highly inflationary.

The Democratic spokesmen, whose names can not be revealed, are not convinced that the legislation will be approved by Congress, but if it is they said the President will veto it.

Mr. Truman has not expressed an opinion publicly on the controversial legislation which the House Veterans committee approved Wednesday.

However, Veterans Administrator Gray advised the committee that it is not in accord with the President's program.

House Democratic leaders, meanwhile, sought a way to block passage of the bill, whose peak cost has been estimated by the veterans administration at six billion dollars a year.

As they did so, Rankin announced that he was writing all members of the House Rules committee a request that he be given a hearing so that the bill may be cleared to the floor for a vote.

Jobs Becoming Scarce In Ohio

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Unemployment in Ohio climbed toward post-war highs today reflecting a trend that was felt across the nation.

The Bureau of Unemployment Compensation in its monthly report said that 81,519 claims for benefits were filed in January showing a 68 per cent increase over the previous month.

Despite statements that the drop in employment was seasonal, the number of claims filed last month was 66 per cent over figures in January of last year.

BUC Administrator Frank J. Collopy blamed a dropping off in orders for manufactured goods and a steel shortage as well as seasonal influences.

US Flier Killed By Reds

ATHENS—(UP)—U. S Army headquarters said today that an unarmed American observer, Lt. Col. Selden R. Edner, 30, of San Jose, Calif., had been "brutally killed" by Greek guerrillas after his plane crash-landed in Karpenision on Jan. 21.

The Greek pilot of the plane, Lt. Panayiotis Tsoukas, also was killed, an army statement said. Their plane, a small trainer on a reconnaissance mission, presumably was shot down by guerrilla fire.

The army statement said the testimony of Greek witnesses indicated that Edner was alive when he was captured by guerrillas shortly after the crash.

When his mutilated body was discovered on Feb. 9, the statement said, "its head had been beaten and crushed beyond recognition and there was a noose about the neck."

Edner's body was found in a stream at the bottom of a deep ravine on the outskirts of Karpenision. The Greek pilot's body was found two days later, partly buried in a ditch a few yards from the damaged plane.

Both bodies had been stripped of all outer clothing and were clad only in torn undergarments when discovered by Greek Flight Sgt. Nikolas Koutentakis, the statement said. An American search party confirmed the finds.

"The multilated body found in a stream at the bottom of a deep ravine on the outskirts of Karpenision had been positively identified from medical records as that of Lt. Col. Selden R. Edner, U. S. Air Force who was a passenger aboard a Royal Hellenic Air Force plane which made a forced landing in Karpenision Jan. 21," the army statement said.

Meanwhile the Greek government announced today that an American pilot and a British army observer have been killed in a plane crash near Florina.

They were identified as Lt. William Wagner, of the USAF, and Lt. Col. Good of the British army. Florina, in northern Greece, has been the scene of recent government-guerrilla clashes.

Earlier, the body of Lt. Col. Edner left Hellinikon airport near Athens, for Germany and the United States.

An aide of King Paul placed a wreath on the coffin of the former American liaison officer.

Full military honors were given the deceased U. S. flyer.

Taxis Roll In Philly

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Taxicabs returned to the Philadelphia street scene today as the city's transit strike went into its second week with faint hope of an early settlement.

As Philadelphia's millions went to work and school this morning, taxis of the Yellow Cab company and independent operators were rolling for the first time since the drivers walked out Tuesday.

The striking cabmen began drifting back to work last night after officials of the AFL-Taxi Drivers union ordered its members to end their walkout pending formal negotiations.

Negotiators in the transit strike were not as successful.

There was no announcemt of further meetings by the Philadelphia Transportation company and CIO-Transport Workers union after a session last night brought the opposing factions within six cents of settlement

Convicts Now 'Slot-Busters'

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Fifty-five one-armed bandits met their fate today at the Ohio state fairgrounds at hands of a half dozen sledge-wielding Ohio penitentiary inmates

The slot machine destroying ceremony was supervised by Liquor Enforcement Chief Anthony J. Rutkowski who said there was at least $10,000 worth of machinery demolished.

Rutkowski said the machines were collected during the two-year administration of Governor Herbert. Money taken from the machines was turned over to the state.

Refuses To Clean Out Line

Underpass Floods Hit

"I refuse to clean any sewer by council order."

With those words, Street Superintendent E. W. Davis today rebelled against a rare council action by which he was ordered by resolution to clean the storm sewer from Park avenue east subway to the Rocky Fork.

Council acted in an announced effort to end flooding of busy Park avenue east after every heavy rain.

Referring to the resolution sponsored by Councilman George Kyle on Monday night and unanimously approved, Davis said:

"It is taken for granted that the Park avenue east sewer needs to be cleaned, but until council appropriates enough money for the men and materials to do the job, it can't be done."

Davis said he never was asked by Kyle, or any other councilman to clean the sewer.

CALLS IT UNFAIR

"At no time has the street department or the administration ever refused to do any work requested by any member of council.

"I feel it is unfair to the street department that council passed legislation ordering them to do a job," Davis added.

"In the first place," he explained, "cleaning the sewer would not be the whole answer. The one inch of rain that Councilman Fred Miller said causes the underpass to be flooded, also raises the level of he Rocky Fork above the level of the storm sewer outlet and this prevents the sewer from draining properly."

"Therefore, the first thing that has to be done is to dredge the Rocky Fork and lower the water level," Davis continued.

"In the second place, I have approached council with two suggestions which, if carried out, would end forever, the problem of the Park avenue east subway flooding.

"By construction of an eight inch line from the subway to Ritter's run (one block away) and the installation of a pump,

Inter-Union Row Renews

CHICAGO — (UP) — CIO United Automobile workers today renewed attempts to take members away from the rival CIO Farm Equipment Workers union by passing out circulars at the McCormick works of International Harvester company.

The 75 UAW representatives were joined at the plant gates by seven former FE union leaders who were deposed this week for urging their followers to obey the CIO executive union's order to merge with the UAW.

No incidents developed although some FE members cursed the UAW men and threw the handbills to the ground. A police official, however, said the inter-union squabble was a "keg of dynamite."

The folder handed out by the FE men was different from that passed out by the regular UAW organizers. It charged that the "long arm of Moscow has reached into Local 108 (the FE unit at Harvester here) and attempted to still the lips of the people whom you, the rank and file, have elected duly and legally by the American process of the secret ballot."

Dewey Shows Vindictive Signs Since Losing Out In Election

GOVERNOR DEWEY took the occasion of his Lincoln day speech to try to read the Republicans out of the party which he twice let down as its nominee for president.

Now he would consolidate it with the Democratic party in an informal acceptance of the one-party system. We have had this kind of Republicanism in Cook County, Ill., New York County, N. Y., and Hudson County, N. J., and it has been rotten. As a mere nuisance, on pension from the Democratic machine, its lawyers living on table-scraps and scourging old butts from the crooks of the bench and the back room, permanently accepting the degraded status of the "minority," the Republican party is nowhere any better than the corruption which it lives on.

It would be just that kind of party on the national scale and Dewey's proposal that it adopt as its permanent program a cheap paraphrase of the Democratic ism proves that he has given all he ever had, which will not boil down to much, and is too selfish to get out and give the party a decent chance.

As an auxiliary of the Democratic party the Republican party never could hope to win. But that is all it could hope to be under the plan which he proposes.

Here is a twice-beaten candidate, who did his best neither time and was licked the second time by a preliminary boy so forlorn that he carried his own bucket, asking a great political institution to become a mere imitation and accomplice of Roosevelt's venture into national socialism.

This thing was not honestly Roosevelt's but was thrown together by his court of nostalgic continentalists and put forward through him as an American New Deal.

IT WAS not an original discovery of Roosevelt that the intelligence of the people is a political figure of speech even in a country which arbitrarily inflicts education on the mollusk measuring it by a mathematical unit like the erg. But not even Hitler himself was quicker to exploit their weakness.

Even Dewey, who got his standard portion at the University of Michigan and a little smitch of seconds at Columbia, now seems too dumb to understand that nobody will buy an imitation when the original is still to be had.

There were many among Dewey's trudging followers who long fought down a suspicion which he confirmed at last in the Washington oration. Confirmation is found also in his vengeful proposal to double his budget and raise the income tax 66 per cent under a Rooseveltian pretext which pretends there is no raise.

All this happened since he got his licking in November. What he might have done as president is a thought too harsh to face.

It is true that the nation has cultivated bad habits of class privilege, inflation and selective law enforcement which, if broken off suddenly, might be fatal. Doctors handling drunkards know about that. But Republicans at least would try to taper off the patient and get back to a reasonable ration of toddy.

It broke Dewey's heart to be licked by Truman and that is his trouble. Everything he has done since then has been mean, vindictive and destructive.

10-Year Plan At Rural Life Center OK'd

Everything But Lake Included In Program

A 10-year development program for the Richland Rural Life center northeast of Mansfield has been tentatively approved by the committee directing the center's activities.

Thomas Sheppard, head of the committee, said today the program includes everything at the center but the lake.

"We'd like to think over the plans for the lake before deciding on just what to do about it," he said.

Sheppard also announced that next week, Clair Will will have charge of a project of cutting the trees on the 80-acre farm in Weller township which the state forester blazed. These trees will be hauled to the mill and the lumber used in remodeling and erecting the necessary buildings on the center.

At a recent meeting, the ways and means committee, of which Harry Stroup is chairman, was authorized by board members to plan a second annual community sale, a county-wide barbecue and square dance and the annual 4-H club day on March 12

Dates for the sale and dance have yet to be arranged.

Arrangements also are being made this week for a mortgage of $3,500 to be placed on the center so accruing bills may be paid immediately. A five-year payment term has been asked, but Sheppard said today it probably would be paid out in less time.

Letters have been sent to all county organizations asking for contributions and Sheppard said donations already are coming in as proceeds from school plays.

The resignation of Mrs. John Simmons, junior director from Perry township was accepted.

Clay Lauds Berlin Lift

BERLIN — (UP) — Gen Lucius D. Clay said today that the Anglo-American airlift could supply Berlin "indefinitely" and that the United States was proceeding as rapidly as possible with the formation of a west German government.

The American military governor declared in an interview: "It has become crystal clear that blockades and starvation threats do not form a successful tool for political coercion There is no question whatsoever now of our ability to sustain Berlin by air indefinitely until we have accomplished our objectives."

Clay said that with the present airlift fleet "we will be able to bring in more than 6,000 tons of supplies daily from here on."

Four thousand tons daily is considered the minimum needed to circumvent the Russian blockade and sustain western Berlin.

Clay refused to comment on the possibility of the Russians lifting the blockade in the near future.

Commissioners Hire Assistant Warden

By a vote of two to one, Richland county commissioners today had employed an assistant county dog warden to aid in the campaign to tag all dogs.

The new warden is Sam Peterson, Lexington, R. D. 1. He will receive $225 a month. He will assist Dog Warden Charles J. Hunt.

The dissenting vote was cast by Commissioner C. L. Shoup, only Republican member of the board. Shoup said he thought the additional man was unnecessary.

Guy Stewart, chairman of the board, said the county is "over-run with stray dogs and according to our population we should sell 10,000 to 12,000 tags.

Only 7,000 were sold last year and the dog population has increased since then, he said.

A house-to-house canvass of the county was begun Wednesday and will continue until all dogs either have tags or are impounded, Stewart said. Dogs are held three days and then destroyed unless tags are bought for them.

Dog license money goes into the county kennel fund from which salaries and expenses in the department are paid.

The girls, 14 and 15, were apprehended Wednesday night in Crestline where they went Monday and rented a room after deciding not to go to school that day, juvenile court officers said.

They had been absent more than half the school days since school opened in September, according to officers.

One of the girls was placed on probation until the end of the school year while the other is to live with relatives for the balance of the school year. The girls were ordered to refrain from seeing each other.

SPRING SONG

If Mansfielders haven't been too sure of it before, they've every reason to be getting a touch of spring fever now. Many heads turned on West Fourth street early today to search out a lone robin, lustily singing his spring song on a high branch. Patches of light green are appearing on Central Park's lawn and farm stores are exhibiting little chicks in brooder houses in show windows. Farmers are getting things ready for the appearances of the first spring lambs and oiling up the plows for spring plowing.

For the first time in more than 11 months, a 24-hour period passed without a single traffic accident reported to Mansfield police. During the 24-hour period ended at 8 a. m. today, their were no mishaps of any kind. And for the second time this week, a 24-hour period elapsed without a felonious crime being committed and reported to city police. One police officer said, "Maybe the decline is do to the fact that this is National Crime Prevention week."

Supplies Contract Awarded

Shelby Order Must Wait

The Courier Printing company, Mansfield, was awarded a contract yesterday afternoon for printing 26,350 ballots to be used in the May primary in Mansfield. It was the only bid received. The board had invited five firms to bid on the work.

The ballots will cost $518.40.

The contract for furnishing poll books, poll lists, tally sheets, pens, pencils and other supplies for the primary went to the Johnson-Watson company, of Dayton, on its bid of 8.84 per set. One set goes to each precinct.

The board passed a resolution putting Harry E. Colbow, Democratic candidate for Second ward councilman, on the primary ballot, on receipt of an opinion from Prosecutor Harold Lutz that Colbow was eligible to run for the office. Colbow was mayor of South Boulevards until the village was annexed to the city last September.

The board ordered an equal number of ballots for both parties in the First, Third, Fifth and Sixth wards. The number of ballots of each party ordered for these wards included: First, 2,400; Third, 2,400; Fifth, 1,200 and Sixth, 1,800.

The board ordered 1,850 Republican and 1,650 Democratic ballots for the Second ward. For the Fourth ward, 1,250 Democratic and 1,000 Republican ballots were ordered.

Also ordered were 1,250 ballots as spares in the event some precincts might not have enough on hand.

In all, there were 11,950 Democratic and 11,900 Republican ballots ordered.

The board can't order ballots for Shelby until after the filing deadline March 4.

Board members said declarations of candidacy for Shelby offices must contain a minimum of 77 electors' signatures for a candidate to qualify to run, in accordance with the Shelby charter form of government.

That is two per cent of the number of persons who voted at the last election for mayor. Then 3,817 voters went to the polls, board members said.

Ashland Wildlife Group Maps Farm Expansion Plans

Plans for expanding recreational facilities at the refuge farm of the Ashland County Wild Life Conservation league were presented to the membership at the regular meeting last night

Top spot on the agenda for 1949 improvements was the construction of additional fire places and picnic tables on the farm grounds. Various committees were appointed to direct work on the selected projects by Dr. J. W. Ogden, president.

The group decided to handle tickets for the Sportsmen's Show in Cleveland the middle of March and sponsorship of the circulation of a petition requesting improvements to the road running past the refuge farm.

Members also agreed with Dr. Ogen that more women should be drawn into the organization, and committees of women were appointed to assist the club with its 1949 projects. Among these groups were both interior and exterior decorating committees which will have charge of fixing the club-owned farm house so all members of a family may attend meetings.

Several club members declared their intention of attending the League of Ohio Sportsmen convention which opens today in Columbus. Dr. Ogden, a member of the board of trustees of the League, will attend a special banquet of the Old Timers association tonight in Columbus.

Movies tracing the 10-week vacation of two Ashland youths and an Ashland man in Canada last year were presented following refreshments. The youths made the trip as guests of the Ashland merchant who has shown these pictures exactly 50 times and still has 10 more showings scheduled. Due to a busy schedule he requested he remain anonymous.

Tygers Go to Massillon; Rams at Loudonville

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

WE STILL marvel at the enthusiasm shown at junior high championship sports battles in Mansfield. . . . There's more pep at them than any other athletic contest during the school year . . . Last night's crowd was of the SRO variety and hundreds were turned away at the door. . . . Harold Arlin, who has seen most of the Junior high and Senior high games in the Tyger lair, calls the crowd "the biggest I've even seen at Senior high." . . . It looks like the Appleseed crew has cut into the Simpson monopoly of city titles. . . . Coach Jimmy Lymper's footballers won the crown, 7 to 0. . . . But both championship battles were not definite until the final guns cracked. . . . Augie Morningstar, the Senior high athletic director, says the Tygers will be happy to meet an alumni track team "but the older fellows better be sure to have a supply of ambulances on hand." . . . Morningstar and Harry Mehock, track coach, would like to see some of the stars of former years show up at track practices to furnish top-flight competition for the developing youngsters.

CLUBS MAY book the Cleveland Browns football movie by writing Publicist Nate Wallack of the Browns at the Leader Building in Cleveland. . . . A Brownie coach will accompany the 40-minute movie, "The Year Around With the Browns." . . . Only charge is expenses of the coaches. . . . Organization meeting of the fifth district American Legion Junior baseball setup has been scheduled for Feb. 27 in Norwalk. . . . There's 63 posts in the district and official hope to have a team from each. . . . If so, there'll be several leagues instead of the two which operated last summer.

Cincinnati Reds and Detroit Tigers will play two exhibition baseball games with the proceeds to go to amateur baseball in the two cities . . One game will be played in each town with the visiting club paying its own expenses . Senior High Seeking 8th Win In Row

Mansfield Senior high school makes its last regularly scheduled road stop of the season tonight when it keeps a basketball date with Washington high at Massillon.

The Tygers will be seeking their eighth straight victory while Massillon attempts to keep a three-game win streak together. Senior high has won 13 of 18 and Washington high, nine of 13.

ONE COMMON FOE

Only common foe has been Alliance. Coach Vern Hoffman's Bengals brought down the Aviators, 60 to 45, while the Tigers clipped them twice, 64 to 41 and 55 to 34. With the eight-point home court advantage resting on the side of Washington, it looks like a mighty tough battle.

Although the basketball series between the Tygers and Tigers lacks some of the flavor of the football series, the game is always a highlight for both teams. Since Hoffman has been coaching the cage sport at Senior high, Mansfield has won six of nine games between the schools. The last defeat was in 1945, 31 to 45.

Massillon boasts an all-letterman first five, sparked by Chuck Galey, a 5-10 hotshot. He is the Tigers' leading scorer this trip with 177 markers, an average of 13.6. Last year, he made 19 points as Massillon lost to Mansfield, 53 to 44.

NICK GETS 21

All-Ohio Nick Gagich of the Tygers made 21 points in that one while Norb Shibinski came through with 14. Bengal starters will be Ed Demyan and Jimmy Anderson at the forwards, Shibinski, center and Paul Ferguson and Ken McCally, guards.

The Tyger varsity and sophomore squads were scheduled to leave by bus today at 4 30 p. m. The sophs beat the Tyger cubs, 37 to 29, last year.

Anderson has boosted his team leading scoring total to 247 points, an average of 13.7 a game. Shibinski has 194 tallies and a 10 8 mark. In the four shooting department, Ferguson, McCally and Demyan are all above the .500 mark. Ferguson is the leader with 35 of 59.

Freese and Klehm Pace Alley Leagues

The Commercial B bowling league, which often overshadows faster circuits, turned in one of the season's best jobs last night at the Colony alleys as seven men cracked the honor roll.

Evan with those two efforts, league-leading Dearman's did not post the team high. That honor went to Liederkranz with a 2851. Dearman's had a 2818 to win three games from Zitzer's Maytag. Lions club and Fancee Brands recorded the other sweeps. Yuncker Brothers had a single game of 1022.

Hilltoppers Can Even Up Cage Record

Madison's unpredictable Rams will invade Loudonville tonight for their next-to-last game of the regular season.

Madison can pull its record back to the .500 mark in the fray and needs only to repeat an earlier victory to accomplish the feat. The Rams trimmed the Red Birds, 40-31, in January on the Madison court.

GOOD AND BAD

Since that time the Madison squad has been both good and bad at intervals. The Loudonville game was followed by three straight losses after which came an upset of Columbus Linden-McKinley. Four more defeats preceded Tuesday's surprising upset of the Willard Railroaders.

The Rams played one of their better games of the season in winning the latter fray, 55-47, and showed signs of getting tough for the upcoming sectional tournament. Madison concludes its season at Galion next Friday and then battles Bucyrus in the tourney opener March 1.

Reserve preliminary will get things under way at 7:30 tonight.

Cage Carnival Set Saturday

Another of the three-game basketball carnivals sponsored by the Senior Church league will be staged Saturday night on the YMCA hardwood, Ed Rapp, president of the circuit, announced today.

Mayflower church will meet First Christian of the Junior church league in the 7 p. m. opening game while Westinghouse of the American "B" league opposes St. Matthew's of the Senior church circuit in the second game. Westinghouse won the first round championship of the American loop.

The Salesmen, National league second-placers, close out the program against Lucas Lutheran. The Salesmen lost only one game in the second round.

Salesmen Trip Au Cage Team

Regular season play in the National basketball league closed last night as the Salesmen took a 44-33 decision from Au Construction at John Simpson gym.

The victory sewed up second place for the Salesmen in the last half race. They had finished in last place during the first round.

New Leader

ATLANTIC CITY, N J., — (INS) — The unheralded De Angelis grill team, of Hershey, Pa., powered their way into first place in the five-man event at the 46th annual American bowling championships by 17 points when they rolled up a score of 2,873 last night in Atlantic City's convention hall.

Ohio State Battles Northwestern

COLUMBUS — INS) — Ohio State's amazing on-and-off basketball squad takes off for Chicago today in another effort to upset the big nine conference with a tilt against Northwestern tomorrow night

The two teams will meet in the Chicago stadium in a contest which could do a lot to the individual conference standings

TOP SCORERS

The fray will pitt Ohio State's league leading Bob Raidiger who has racked up 138 points in nine games against Ray Ragelis, with 134 markers to his credit.

Midwestern and particularly western conference basketball got a boost in prestige with Monday's Ohio State 68-60 conquest of the St. Louis Billikins, the nation's second ranking team.

"Tippy" Dye's Buckeyes rate the distinction of "Giant Killers," in anybody's league. The victory enhances western conference stature because when the big-time promoters hunt for invitational tournament representatives, they generally ignore the big nine.

Midway during the season the Buckeyes upset Minnesota and knocked the Gophers out of the league leadership to throw the conference basketball race into a scramble But Coach Dye isn t interested in just winning crucial games—he wants them all.

Ohio State started like a house-afire early this season opening with victories against Butler and Marquette at home before bowing to Oklahoma 64-55 in their initial road trip, despite Dick Schnittker's 32 points against the Sooners

The Scarlet and Gray then dumped California twice and halted Vince Broyla led Denver before returning to the Buckeye arena against Northwestern for its conference lid-lifter After taking the Wildcats in stride, the Bucks bowed before Illinois 64-63 because they failed to capitalize on the foul line and an inability to retain possession in the fading moments of the game.

In other Big Nine games tomorrow, Wisconsin (2-6) plays at Iowa (1-6), Minnesota (7-2) at Michigan (5-2) and Indiana (3 5) at Purdue (6-3).

Appleseed Edges Simpson for City Title, 30-29

Pioneers Survive 4th Quarter Rally

By CHARLEY STINE

Johnny Appleseed junior high won its second city basketball championship in many years of trying last night as it outlasted a last-minute John Simpson rally for a 30-29 victory.

An estimated 1700 wild-eyed youths yelled themselves hoarse as Simpson scored 13 points in the last three minutes, to put a thrilling end to the game.

Freddie Zahn, Appleseed's five-foot-five 110-pound bit of dynamite, was the fair-haired boy of the night as he pumped in 18 points to lead both teams in scoring. Ten of Zahn's points came in the fourth quarter.

Simpson's ball-control offense functioned smoothly through most of the night but the Bulldogs could not get the ball through the hoop when they got in position. Appleseed meanwhile, was running up a good percentage on one-handers from the corners and keyhole.

NONE IN THIRD

Actually the third quarter won the ball game for the Pioneers. A nip-and-tuck first half found Appleseed ahead 8-4 at the quarter and Simpson leading 12-11 at the intermission. The Bulldogs failed to score in the third quarter, however, as Appleseed rang the bell for seven points.

Zahn opened the fourth quarter with a goal to run the score to 20-12, then helped Appleseed build it to 25-16 with three minutes to go.

Bill Semenoff and Bob Matthews connected for Simpson, but Freddie Zahn kept Appleseed at a seven-point margin with a toss from the corner. Semenoff tallied for Simpson but Zahn cut loose from far back for what everyone except the Simpson players took for the game-clinching bucket.

STEALS THE BALL

Benny Carbetta converted on a foul and Bob Matthews stole the ball to dribble in for a bucket before Zahn got his last point from the free throw line.

With but 45 seconds to go Simpson pulled the fans off their seats as Bob Matthews sank a long one-hander. Appleseed tried to freeze the ball but the Bulldogs gained possession and with 20 seconds left Matthews tried again from well back. His shot bounced off to the left where Jim Schafer waited and pushed it in running the score to final 30-29 count.

Simpson made 11 field goals to eight for the winners but could not equal the Pioneers from the foul line. Appleseed connected on 14 of 26 free tosses and the Bulldogs made but seven of 19.

BULLDOGS BARK

John Simpson piled on the points in the last quarter to win the hot reserve preliminary, 30 to 24. Once again it was a question of foul line accuracy paying off. Simpson had 12 of 25 from the free throw line and the Pioneers only four of 19.

Appleseed led at the quarter, 6 to 4 and at the half, 14 to 13. Simpson led 24-22 as the final heat started. It was the eighth win in 10 games for the Bulldogs.

Buck Tankers Meet Purdue In Columbus

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio state's undefeated swimmers will be seeking their fifth consecutive victory of the season against Purdue's invading Boilermakers Saturday in the Bucks' final home appearance before traveling to Ann Arbor to engage Michigan's defending western conference champions.

Despite a record of three wins against two setbacks, Purdue boasts one of the top tank crews in the conference. The boilermakers have beaten Northwestern, Minnesota and Wisconsin while losing to Iowa and Michigan, two of the nation's top teams.

THREE VICTORIES

The Boilermakers extended Michigan before bowing 57-36, but the meet was closer than the score indicated. Capt. Keith Carter, Purdue's top point-getter, speared three firsts against the Wolverines, while lowering the American record for the 150-yard individual medley. He also clipped existing conference marks for both the 50 and 100-yard freestyles.

Carter, versatile Olympic star and defending big nine champion long course record holder in the 50-yard sprint and the 200-yard breast stroke, tops the candidates that coach Papenguth is grooming for the powerful Buckeyes.

Should Carter win three firsts against the Bucks he'll equal Bill Smith's three conquests scored against Iowa last week, when the Bulbuous Hawaiian helped sink Iowa 48-36 in an upset-thriller.

Wesleyan Rips Wittenberg; Ashland Nips Loss Streak

(By Associated Press)

A clash between Ohio Wesleyan and Wittenberg at Springfield, with the Bishops running off with a 90 to 76 Ohio conference victory, topped Ohio's four-game college basketball program last night.

In other games, Wilberforce State downed Cedarville for the second time this season 97 to 60: Marietta defeated Bethany of West Virginia 77 to 56 and Ashland won over Findlay 63 to 60.

Cincinnati's Bearcats traveled to Pittsburgh to defeat Duquesne university 58 to 50—the first home defeat this season for favored Duquesne.

Ashland's Eagles ended a nine-game losing streak in beating Findlay, whose Bob Wortman took scoring honors with 20 points. Don Drebus tallied 19 for Ashland.

Wittenberg suffered its fifth straight setback in league play by losing to Wesleyan. The Lutherans put up an even battle in the first half, which ended 42-all. Wesleyan's, Jud Millhon and Chuck Buttermore led a rally in the second half to keep their team on top. Buttermore took scoring honors with 26 points, while Millhon got 25.

Dick Button Wins 2nd Skate Crown

PARIS — (AP) — Women stars of the ice go through their final routines tonight to see who will reign beside the United States' young Dick Button as queen of the world figure skating.

Button, 19-year-old Olympic champion won his second straight world crown yesterday with an adroit and spectacular exhibition that thrilled a crowd of 10,000 at the Paris sports palace.

British Plan Eight Team Ball League

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(UP)—Such former big leaguers as Mickey Owen and Max Lanier, suspended for jumping to the Mexican league, were under consideration today as player-coaches to help get major league baseball started in Great Britain.

Dick (Twinkle Toes) Carlish, British sportsman and promoter is here to study the field of available talent he can export to get baseball under way in England this summer, had his eye on those players now serving a five-year suspension and planned to contact Commissioner A. B. Chandler for approval.

"We plan an 8-team league and those players would be perfect to help us get started," he said. "By using those men we would not be tampering with the baseball set up in the United States and when their suspension ends they could return. Naturally, I would seek Chandler's approval."

Backed by a number of eminent British sportsmen, such as Sir Arthur Elvin, who was underwriter for the 1948 Olympic games, Carlish looks forward to the day when baseball will "kill cricket" and England will meet the United States in a real world series.

"We are not quite ready to contact American players because our plan still are in a very formative stage," said the former night club proprietor.

"But I am certain that baseball will go over big in England," he added: "Your GI's played your Marines at Wembley stadium during the war and attracted almost 40,000 people. Your boys would play at Hyde park on Sundays, and thousands would go out to watch them."

Carlish tentatively plans teams at Wembley and White City stadiums in London, Liverpool, Birmingham, Leeds, Sheffield, Newcastle and Manchester.

"We hope to be able to fly two of your teams over for an opening exhibition," explained the one-time dancer. "And when we finally have a worthy team, we would like to bring it over to play one of your teams, naturally not the Yankees or any major league club, but possibly A triple A class team. Eventually, it is our hope, we will have a team of a calibre which could compete against your world series winner for the baseball championship of the world."

American Puck Team Beaten By Canadians

STOCKHOLM — UP) — Their hopes for a title badly shaken, the United States Amateur Hockey association team met Sweden today still seeking its first victory in the championship round of the world's tournament.

The Yanks were handed a resounding 7 to 2 defeat by Canada last night.

Harry Watson of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey league scored nine of his first 11 goals on his home ice.

Richland County Teams End Slates

Tournament seedings will be as important as league standings in the final set of Richland county league games set to be run off tonight.

Drawings for next week's county tournament will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in the courthouse offices of county Superintendent of Schools Boyd Robinson.

Robinson announced today that seeding would be based on record rather than vote and that the number of teams seeded would be decided at the meeting.

TIED FOR LEAD

Bellville and Ontario are currently tied for the county league lead and will undoubtedly be seeded in opposite brackets if they win tonight.

Bellville has the toughest row to hoe tonight as it invades Lucas for a game with the fourth place team. Bellville won the first game between the teams, 30-25.

Ontario is set to host seventh place Union and the game will go on despite the fact that Ontario schools were closed today. L. C. Stingel, Ontario superintendent, announced that failure of a water pump forced the cancellation of classes but that repairs would be made in time for the game.

A defeat for either Bellville or Ontario automatically makes a county champion of the other, while a loss for both would give Lexington a chance to move into a three-way tie.

Lexington travels to Plymouth tonight while Butler invades Shiloh in the other game.

In the event the standings end in a tie there will be no playoff, Robinson said. Trophies will be given to co-champions.

Money Stacks Lure Big Field

ARCADIA, CALIF. — (AP) — The lure of a fat stack of money tomorrow draws some of the finest three-year-olds in the country to the post in the 12th running of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby.

Listed as probably starters when entries close today are: Fred W. Hooper's Olympia and Ocean Drive; Bert Baroni's Hayseed, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Stone Age, Mrs. Ada Rice's Admiral Lea, Mrs. John Hertz' Count Victor and So La Ci, W. Arnold Hanger's Bolero, J. H. Seley's Duplicator, Clifford Mooer's Old Rockport, Harry N. Isenberg's Audacious Man and the King Ranch's Swap Out.

Gregg Signs Up

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Pitcher Hal Gregg today forwarded his signed contract to the Pittsburgh Pirate leaving only four buccos still unsigned. Gregg who lives in Anaheim, Calif., won two and lost four last season.

Gripe Session Opens Meeting

COLUMBUS — (INS) — The league of Ohio Sportsmen opens its 41st annual three-day convention in Columbus today with an hour's farmer-sportsman "gripe" session at 7:30 p.m. as the highlight of the day.

Speakers on tonight's panel will be farmer-author Louis Bromfield; C. D. Blubaugh of Danville, another outstanding farmer; Cleveland's Earl McMunn, editor of the Ohio Farmer; Lew Klewer of Toledo, president of the outdoor writers of Ohio; Theodore Reed of Pomeroy, president of the Ohio Forestry Association.

Paul De Ville of Canton, president of the Lake Cable Conservation Association; Dean Leo L. Rummel of the Ohio State university Agricultural College; state agricultural director A. W. Marion, and conservation commissioner H. A. "Buck" Rider.

Woodling Signs With New York

AKRON — (AP) — Gene Woodling of Akron, who clouted .385 for the second place San Francisco seals in the Pacific Coast league last summer, signed a contract with the New York Yankees and expects to leave next Tuesday for their Florida spring training camp.

The 26-year-old Woodling previously had big league tryouts with Cleveland and Pittsburgh. He started in pro ball with the Mansfield Braves.

No Mentor, But Miami Books Slate

OXFORD—(AP)—Miami university still doesn't have a football coach but Redskin officials today completed a nine-game schedule for the 1949 grid season.

The schedule:

Sept. 24—Wichita at Wichita, Kans.; Oct. 1—Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.; Oct. 8—Xavier at Oxford; Oct. 15—Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh; Oct. 22—Ohio university at Oxford; Oct. 29—Western Michigan at Kalamazoo, Mich.; Nov. 5—Western Reserve at Oxford; Nov. 12—Dayton at Oxford; Nov. 24—Cincinnati at Cincinnati.

Pitt will be the only newcomer to the schedule.

Miami, defending champion in the Mid-America conference, will play four non-loop contests before swinging into conference competition against Ohio university.

James A. Gordon, manager of athletics, said the game with Wichita will open a new two-year contract with that school.

GE Building Huge Hoist

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — (AP) — An electric hoist drive capable of lifting 12 tons of ore 2,300 feet a minute — nearly 30 miles an hour — is under construction here by the General Electric company.

The hoist is scheduled for shipment next fall to Anaconda Copper Mining Company at Butte, Mont. It will be used to recover 130,000,000 tons of low-grade copper ore.

A GE announcement said the direct-current hoist motor is rated at 3,000 horsepower at 60 rp. At full speed, it will lift the ore from the depth of 4,335 feet in about two minutes. The company also will supply a motor-generator set driven by a 3,500 horsepower motor, a complete control and switcher type starting system and other equipment.

Resume Production After Labor Fight

SPRINGFIELD — (AP) — International Harvester company officials announced resumption of full production at the local plant last night. Some 1,900 workers were laid off last week when the assembly line was stopped.

Company officials attributed it to a "deliberate" slowdown in the sheet metal department. The CIO United Auto Workers union denied the workers caused a slowdown.

Little Opposition to Conveyor Belt Seen In Ohio Assembly

Big Hurdle Believed Railroads

Bill Would Ease Building Path

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS — (AP) — "Little real opposition" was seen today in the legislature to a 130-mile conveyor belt line in northeastern Ohio.

That's the word from Sen. Carl D. Sheppard (R-Summit), co-sponsor of a bill to permit construction of the $210,000,000 project.

The belt line would transport iron ore and coal between Lorain on Lake Erie and East Liverpool on the Ohio river. It would serve the Ohio-Pennsylvania-West Virginia steelmaking area.

Sheppard said railroad brotherhoods were expected to oppose the project because it would compete with rail lines serving the area.

Other labor unions may support the brotherhoods, Sheppard speculated, but a project creating thousands of jobs won't be too unpopular these days. Most of that support will be tacit, he predicted.

The measure by Sheppard and Sen. Edwin F. Sawicki (D-Cuyahoga) would make the Riverlake Belt Conveyor Line, incorporated, a common carrier under Ohio Public Utilities commission regulation. As such, it could condemn land for the belt line upon proper payment to owners.

Sheppard said he wasn't sure about railroad opposition but expressed belief the lines weren't too concerned.

H. B. Stewart jr., president of the Akron, Canton and Youngstown railroad, announced formation of the conveyor corporation.

He estimated freight savings on coal and ore transportation costs at $20,000,000 to $45,000,000 annually. That would be enough to pay off private financing for the belt line in 20 years, he predicted.

The savings on ore delivered to mills in Youngstown and Pittsburgh was set at from 47 to 68 cents a ton and 50 cents to $1.50 a ton on coal hauling to Lake Erie.

Figures showed 1947 iron ore tonnage for the New York Central railroad in the area was 9,075,000; Pennsylvania 17,500,000; Baltimore & Ohio 5,652,900; Wheeling and Lake Erie 1,794,150 and Erie 2,000,000.

Both houses of the legislature went home for the weekend yesterday after a busy session.

Davis Defies Council

we can keep the subway clear. The job would cost $5,000, and would end our problem."

At present, the water in the underpass spills into a line which is already carrying water from further west.

"A second measure which would end the problem, would be the construction of a larger line under the Pennsylvania railroad on East Second street," Davis said.

"At present, two 20 inch lines merge into one as they pass under the railroad. During a heavy rain, this line cannot carry the load, and part of the water spills down Bushnell and Bentley streets, making the Park avenue east subway problem worse," Davis said.

FUNDS RUN SHORT

Turning to the financial side of the question, Davis said, due to the cut made by council in his annual appropriation, the street department has been cut from 40 to 30 men.

"If we don't get some more money in 30 days we're going to have to cut another six men off the labor force," he said.

He pointed out that the street department has completed three major storm sewer jobs since the beginning of the year, spending $6,000 of the $20,000 appropriated for new storm sewers.

"How long do they think we can keep going at that rate," he queried.

"It would take five men, one truck and two sewer cleaning machines three weeks to do the Park avenue east sewer job, and the men cannot be spared from street cleaning and repair work nor do we have the funds, to do the job council ordered.

Red Conspiracy In the U.S.A.

Hiss Testifies, Denies Charges Made By Chamber

By ROBERT E. STRIPLING
(Edited by Bob Considine)
20th Article In a Series.

The first appearance of Alger Hiss before the House un-American activities committee, on Aug. 5, 1948, drew perhaps the biggest turnout of reporters and spectators in the history of our inquiries.

When he was sworn in, Hiss elaborated dramatically on what is normally the routine "I do." Hiss said, "So help me God . . . so help me God."

Then, in his clear, perfect diction, he began:

"I was born in Baltimore, Md., on Nov. 11, 1904. I am here at my own request to deny unqualifiedly various statements about me which were made before this committee by one Whittaker Chambers the day before yesterday. I appreciate the committee's having promptly granted my request. I welcome the opportunity to answer to the best of my ability any inquiries the members of this committee may wish to ask me.

"I am not and never have been a member of the communist party. I do not and never have adhered to the tenets of the communist party. I am not and never have been a member of any communist-front organization.

I have never followed the communist party line, directly or indirectly. To the best of my knowledge, none of my friends is a communist.

"To the best of my knowledge, I never heard of Whittaker Chambers until in 1947, when two representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation asked me if I knew him and various other people, some of whom I knew and some of whom I did not know. I said I did not know Chambers. So far as I know, I have never laid eyes on him, and I should like to have the opportunity to do so." His voice rose in cultured indignation as he spoke the last sentence.

"I have known Henry H. Collins (Ed. Note: Named by Chambers as provider of the Washington apartment where the alleged conspirators reportedly met) since we were boys in camp together. I knew him again while he was at the Harvard Business School while I was at the Harvard Law School, and I have seen him from time to time since I came to Washington in 1933.

"I don't believe I ever knew Victor Perlo (Ed. Note: Named by both Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley as leader of another alleged communist spy ring in Washington.)

POINTS TO RECORD

"Except as I have indicated, the statements made about me by Mr. Chambers are complete fabrications. I think my record in the government service speaks for itself."

Rep. Mundt briefly reviewed Chambers's charges against him and ended the resume by wondering, aloud, why the Time editor mentioned Hiss.

"So do I, Mr. Chairman," Hiss spoke up. "I have no possible understanding of what could have motivated him . . I wish I could have seen Mr. Chambers before he testified . . . The name means absolutely nothing to me."

Hiss surprised the sympathetic crowd when he conceded, with aplomb, that in 1946 he had been directed by Secretary of State Byrnes to present himself at the F. B. I. for a loyalty test, growing out of a report from Capitol Hill that several members of Congress were going to name him as a communist.

The tone of the committee was semi-apologetic as the first hearing of Hiss neared its close. Mundt expressed the chair's "appreciation for your very co-operative attitude, for your forthright statements, and for the fact that you were first among those whose names were mentioned by various witnesses to communicate with us asking for an opportunity to deny the charges."

"And another thing," spoke up John Rankin. "I want to congratulate the witness that he didn't refuse to answer the questions on the ground that it might incriminate him, and he didn't bring a lawyer here to tell him what to say."

There was applause outside as he left, smiling for the photographers. The committee filed silently out of the caucus room.

In executive session the members looked at one another for a time, and you could have cut the gloom with a knife. "We're ruined!" one declared. There must have been a wish on his part, and that of others, to drop the whole matter and apologize to Hiss. But, as I pointed out, with the aid of Rep. Nixon, a prima facie perjury was somewhere involved. We had to carry on, if only for that reason.

(TOMORROW: Stripling reveals how Whittaker Chambers withstood an almost bitter interrogation.)

Senior High Courses Would Require 15 Years of Study

"It would take a student 15 years to complete high school if he were to take all the 72 different subjects offered at Senior high," Glenn G. Rohleder, principal of Senior high school, told the Kiwanis club yesterday.

"And it would take another six years if he were to complete the three vocational courses offered," Rohleder added.

Rohleder pointed out there were five distinct types of courses given at the school—academic or college entrance, general (when no further schooling is contemplated by the pupil,) commercial or office practice, home economics and vocational (automobile, electric, or machine shop.)

He told how the entrance requirements of college differ, and students considering college must take this into consideration when choosing their high school curriculum.

He explained privately supported institutions set their own entrance standards which may include from two to four years of a foreign language and any other subjects they deem necessary for entrance, but the five state universities require only a high school diploma.

Clear Fork Reservoir Partly Filled

Heavy Rains Flood Route 545

The city's Clear Fork reservoir is beginning to look like a lake.

The recent heavy rains have partly filled the reservoir southwest of the city, flooding State Route 545 near the Morrow county line.

Although impounding operations have not been started, the gate valves at the dam are not big enough to allow all the water to flow out of the reservoir, City Sanitary Engineer B. V. BeVier said.

When the impounding operations are completed, State Route 545 will be under water. An alternate road is under construction.

The Clear Fork creek will supply the reservoir which will give Mansfield more water as soon as a pumping station and water line are constructed.

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1949

From Kansas City, of all places, comes report that a fix-proof traffic ticket has been perfected.

If the general impression is right, Floridians are carefully clipping and memorizing every newspaper article about the hard winter in California.

Not that it matters, but, according to the World Book Encyclopedia, if you spend a dollar a minute it would take you two thousand years to get rid of a billion dollars.

Ohio C. of C. Suggests Budget Cut

COUNTERING President Truman's demand for tax increases that would produce $4,000,000,000, the Ohio Chamber of Commerce advises a cut of that amount in the President's budget and revival of activities by the Byrd committee on non-essential federal expenditures.

C. I. Weaver, president of the Ohio Chamber, points out that careful economies will be advisable as prices and volume of sales drop—that the business world is facing retrenchments and that it is time for the federal government to end duplication and cut waste.

Mr. Weaver asserts that the Byrd committee has been one of the most effective agencies raising a voice against federal waste of funds since its establishment in 1941 and the Ohio Chamber of Commerce is urging this state's congressional delegation to support the request for an appropriation of $20,000 to finance its activities this year.

Making Ready For New Friendly House

WITH THE NEW Friendly House building now under roof, the community is alerting itself to see that the task of equipping the settlement house is completed. Many clubs and other civic groups are pitching in.

Most recently, the Business and Professional Women's group staged a benefit bridge at the Elks home which will probably net several hundred dollars.

March 16, the newly-organized Goodfellows will bring the Cleveland Browns basketball team here for a professional game with an all-star Mansfield team. All proceeds will go to equipping the Friendly House gymnasium.

The city is proud of the work Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gimbel and their staff have done at the settlement house. Backing projects to raise funds is one way every citizen has of showing that pride in a worthwhile project.

Another of the Unobserved Laws

A READER rises to object to the still rather common practice of "spitting on the sidewalk" and mentions that in the country she came from there is a heavy fine for this offense.

"I've been here a number of years," she says, "but when I see a person spitting on the sidewalk, memories of the old country come back to me. As I was walking along North Park street recently a man came out of a cafe and spit in such a way that it splattered on my shoes."

She suggests this country should also have a law against that filthy practice—not knowing, of course, that there is already such a law and that it is merely disregarded and unenforced.

As a part of a health ordinance in effect in Mansfield it is plainly stated that: "No person shall spit upon the sidewalk of any street, alley, other public place, or upon the floor, walls or seats of any room, hall, office, or other part of any tenement, hotel or lodging place which is used in common by the guests or inmates thereof . . . ", etc. Fine or imprisonment is the penalty for violation.

While this is a health regulation, designed to prevent spread of disease, it is also a matter of common decency. Notice the customary type of offenders and you will not be surprised.

Courtesy Extended Russian Visitors

AN INTERCHANGE of courtesy resulting from a common interest in football took place recently between Russians and British at the Firth of Forth in Scotland.

A Soviet crew brought to the Firth the British battleship Royal Sovereign, to be turned over to the Admiralty. The officer in charge, Commodore Petreshev, sent word ashore that he was a rugby fan, and would like to see the scheduled Scotland-Wales game.

Every effort was made to find tickets, but all had been sold. The Scottish Rugby Union committee overcame that obstacle by announcing that space would be made for the Russian officer and as many of his crew as he wished to bring ashore for the game. One hundred and fifty uniformed Russians came and enjoyed it.

Incidents such as this reveal, once in a while, that Russians after all are people. Basically they, as individuals, are interested in the same things Americans are interested in—life with a decent mixture of work and comfort, love and laughter.

Noting a dispatch telling of a teacher dying and leaving $1,000.000, Harry Wade comments that this is much like saying that Marshall Field just got out of the newspaper business with a quarter of a billion dollars.

It is now contended that the "busy beaver" really works only two months a year—but how many hours a day, please?

Being presented as a new political slogan: "If you can't earn it vote for it."

Files Contain Mass of Useless Records

ONE of the best amazing-but-true stories of recent years concerned the Collier brothers of New York City. Two old men, well born, educated and once useful, spent their later years collecting useless junk.

The house where they lived was overwhelmed with stuff saved from earlier years, picked up in the streets and elsewhere—just junk in unbelievable profusion. One of the brothers died; the other was missing. Finally, the latter was found by the police, smothered in a tunnel of junk.

Uncle Sam's government is in some such danger, says the Hoover commission. Our teeming bureaucracy spawns records in incredible amounts. They spread all over Washington, in branch offices everywhere.

They have grown in bulk from 3,000,000 cubic feet in 1930 to 18,500,000 cubic feet in 1948. They pour into new filing cases in an endless stream daily. They are costly.

The National Records Management Council, which made the report for Hoover, estimates the annual cost of record-making and keeping at $1,200,000,000. It offers Congress and the President a first-rate opportunity to save hundreds of millions of good dollars.

* * *

Valuable Space Wasted.

SOME notion of our Collier-like accumulation of old paper can be gained by calculating what this mass of records means in terms of space. It would fill 3,080,000 four-drawer filing cases costing $154,000,000 at present prices.

It occupies 18,000,000 square feet of valuable floor space—the equivalent of six Pentagon Buildings. Annual cost for this space is not less than $27,000,000. To this may be added $20,000,000 for operation and maintenance.

All this record-keeping might be justified if the material were essential and worth keeping. But the report points out that one-third of all this stuff could be burned. It is either outdated, valueless or duplicated.

Another means of saving would be the transfer of vast amounts of records to less expensive quarters. The report suggests that idle war plants outside great cities be used for at least 20 per cent of the necessary records. And that there be instituted vigorous control of current records.

It is believed that there might be something like 10 to 25 per cent turn-over. That is, as new records are made, old ones could be eliminated.

The point about moving records out of expensive office space is very important. The report says that 90 per cent of the cost of keeping records could thus be saved. There is vast space available for such a purpose in "selected war plants or some of the 100 war plants now placed in the industrial reserve."

* * *

Navy More Efficient.

THE MOST voluminous records are those of the Army and Air Force. These alone constitute 1,500,000 cubic feet. This, incidentally, does not include Selective Service, which uses about 500,000 cubic feet.

The Navy uses about 850,000 cubic feet. It is noted that the Navy has a much higher turnover of records than the Army, which is a mark of greater efficiency.

One of the stupendous users of space is the General Accounting Office which, as another Hoover report will point out, is one of our most cumbersome and, to a degree, unnecessary services.

The remedy for all this waste, according to the report, is to centralize record management in a single records management administration. This would include the National Archives, which keeps material of permanent or historical interest.

The law should tighten up present laxity in permitting departing officials from carting away large quantities of records which are incorrectly called "personal." Microfilm recording should be more fully used. And finally, it is suggested that there be more "birth control" in record making.

All together, this aspect of federal government presents the opportunity for the saving of $30,000,000 to $50,000,000 annually. There is also the fact that a records purge would mean greater efficiency everywhere.

Looking Back

Twenty Years Ago Today

Monday, Feb. 18, 1929.

Industrial upturn in Mansfield was reported by A. D. Caddell, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Home of Joseph Dauterman on Pulver-List road was destroyed by fire.

The Mansfield Book Bindery, established in 1879 by H. H. Webber, was sold to Buckeye Press and moved to West Third street location from Temple court.

Home of George Balliett, 31 Western avenue, was ransacked by burglars and about $600 worth of clothing stolen.

Mrs. J. C. Cotter, 82, died at her home, 190 West Fifth street.

Paul Wier, 113 Stewart avenue, underwent appendicitis operation at General hospital.

John Grauer, 70, proprietor of a bakery, died at his home, 247 North Main street

School for the Talented.

A "school for genius" will be endowed by Huntington Hartford, heir to the A. & P. grocery fortune, providing he gets the needed clearance from the Los Angeles zoning commissioner. Hartford proposes to spend $150,000 a year to develop the talents and abilities of 50 to 75 university graduates at a time.

Young men and women of outstanding promise as painters, sculptors, poets, writers and musicians would be among those admitted to the school.

The idea has exciting possibilities. It could make real contributions to the cultural arts. Should that happen, it would be one more example of private wealth being used for public good.—Kansas City Times.

Why Did Russia Withdraw From WHO?

By J. C. OESTREICHER

THE TOTALLY unexpected action of Soviet Russia, Byelo-Russia and the Ukraine in pulling out of the United Nations' World Health Organization came as a blow to countless supporters of this purely humanitarian and non-political force for mankind's good.

The brusquely-announced withdrawal was inexplicable save on one score—the fastening of still another padlock on the Iron Curtain. Soviet Russia merely said she did not like the organization's work nor its expense.

Neither explanation appears to have much validity. So far as costs are concerned, Russia was assessed only $300,000 in a 1949 budget of $5 million dollars.

The WHO's work has been praised almost universally. Much note has been made of the fact that national politics and policies have nothing whatever to do with its activities.

An epidemic of dread cholera broke out in Egypt and a condition arose which might have affected gravely the health and well-being of the entire world.

The Egyptian government, mindful of the health of its own people and the tremendous danger of infection spreading throughout the world through the medium of air travel, appealed immediately to the WHO.

Serums, vaccines and all the other paraphernalia required to halt a major plague were dispatched to Cairo by air without an instant's loss of time and the epidemic was stopped in its tracks.

Evidence indicates that never before in history has a major menace to health been stamped out so speedily.

That was a spectacular case. But it is only one of hundreds of instances in which the WHO, with its immense prestige and tremendous resources, had worked alone or in coordination with other established health organizations in saving lives and reducing human suffering and privation.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Ask Complete Report On Bikini Tests

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Secretary of Defense Forrestal and the Navy are moving frantically to hush it up but a full-fledged congressional investigation of the effects of the Bikini bomb tests is in the offing. In fact, Senator Brien McMahon, chairman of the atomic energy committee, may announce it any day.

Senators say privately that they are fed up with the hush-hush policy of the brass hats. While the Senate committee is 100 per cent in favor of keeping secret all atomic information of possible value to an enemy, they do not believe either the U. S. Congress or the American people are an enemy.

Also, committee members feel the brass hats are deliberately suppressing considerable information about the effectiveness of the bomb to cover up mistakes they have made in failing to redesign or abolish warships.

One interesting fact now in the hands of the Senate committee is part of the inside story of Bikini. It shows that of the 73 ships involved in the Bikini tests, more than 61 were sunk or destroyed.

This is an enormous loss from only two bombs. Yet it was never released in understandable form to the American public. On the contrary, news releases were carefully spread out over a period of time so that the man in the street never really knew what happened.

* * *

What Bombs Did.

THE real fact, however, is that two bombs at Bikini sank the battleship Arkansas, the carrier Saratoga, the Japanese battleship Nagato, two cruisers, 10 destroyers, three submarines, 12 transports and numerous other vessels.

The aircraft carrier Independence, which was subjected to intense blasts from both Bikini bombs, is now anchored off San Francisco, permanently destroyed—usable only as a testing ground to determine the possibility of removing radioactivity. This is still dangerous two years after the ship was attacked.

Members of the Senate atomic energy committee point out that the loss of so many ships from one bomb would be considered a major naval disaster at any time, yet because the public is not aware of the potency of the bomb, our "bathtub" admirals are busily pouring another $150,000,000 down the drain on a 56,000-ton supercarrier which could be put out of action permanently if a bomb were dropped within half a mile of it.

* * *

Decontamination Problem.

INFORMATION brought to the Senate committee's attention by Dr. David Bradley, a scientist who was an official observer at Bikini, reveals that, after the tests, the Navy tried frantically to remove radioactivity from damaged ships but without success. Bradley reported that "salt water, lye, foamite, soap, all spread with liberal amounts of gob profanity,, had no avail in removing the radioactivity.

Sandblasting was partly effective, but you can't sandblast a whole ship under battle conditions. Nor can you sandblast Pearl Harbor or the Bremerton Shipyards or Chicago.

Possibly, with great quantities of strong acid, you might be able to remove enough paint to clear the decks of fission products. But short of that, the coat of radioactivity administered by the A-bomb is on to stay.

Bradley concluded, "the problem of decontaminating the total service of a battleship or the brick and cement of a future Hiroshima remains practically insolvable."

Most important single harmful result of the Bikini blasts was not the explosions themselves — though they did more damage than any bombs in history—but the fact that plutonium was spread far and wide over the fleet.

Plutonium is the most dangerous atomic element of all. It lodges in the bones, destroys the blood-producing marrow and may kill either by wrecking the red and white blood cells of the victim or it may kill the victim many years later through the formation of bone tumors. Plutonium cannot be removed by any known process.

None of this information is secret. All of it is known to many of the doctors of all nations. Yet Secretary Forrestal, who this year is building more than $400,000,000 worth of new ships, hasn't paid much attention to the problem. This is the inside reason why the Atomic Energy Committee is now seriously planning a full-dress investigation of Bikini and its results.

Most important document the scientists are urging the atomic energy committee to break loose is the nonsecret sections of the report of the evaluation board of the joint chiefs of staff on the Bikini tests which Defense Secretary Forrestal has bottled up.

The report concludes with the significant statement that "future wars employing atomic bombs may well destroy nations and change present standards of civilization."

Brass-hat lobbyists on Capitol Hill have been drawing a red herring across the trail of the proposed investigation by saying that those in favor of more public knowledge about the atomic bomb actually want to give secrets to the Russians. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Where Money Is 'Easy'

By INEZ ROBB

MIAMI BEACH — It is difficult for me to determine, even at second glance, whether everyone here is "feelthy rich" or just acts that way.

Everyone flaunts a roll big enough to choke a horse (preferably a horse running at Hialeah), and if the big bills are wrapped around a wad of newspaper in the center, I have so far failed to detect this new use for news print.

Here the suntans are just a trifle darker, the yachts bigger, the cars longer, the diamonds glossier, the villas more grandiose and the clothes skimpier than anywhere else, including Palm Beach.

It beats me how Palm Beach, year after year, retains its reputation as the richest, lushest resort in the United States when Miami Beach can so obviously give it cards, spades and big and little casino in any competition.

Even the jewel robberies in this area are more magnificent than those picayune affairs 70 miles north in Palm Beach. When a $100.000 snatch is made in Florida, Miami Beach is always the locale.

For every millionaire in Palm Beach, there are twenty on this opulent strand.

For awhile Miami and Miami Beach were considerably disturbed by the number of large fishing boats, their long, deep-sea fishing poles vertical that disrupted — oddly enough—the area's land traffic.

They disrupted traffic whenever they went under a causeway and forced the drawbridges up to accommodate their long fishing poles. This caused long lines of impatient millionaires in sleek convertibles considerable pain, as they sat and honked like crazy as traffic piled up for blocks in all directions.

However, the Greater Miami area finally solved the problem by the simple expedient of discovering that there were lots more impatient millionaires in convertibles than in fishing boats.

The city fathers therefore ordered the millionaires in fishing boats to go to the arduous labor of asking a member of the crew to lower the fishing poles when approaching bridges. This permits the fishing craft to get under the bridges without disrupting land traffic.

Naturally, the fishing millionaires are bitter about this inconvenience. But, after all, this is a democracy, and they have had to bow to the will of the majority in the convertibles.

Home Talent Mobsters.

PALM BEACH millionaires play their money so close to the vest that the eagle often clings to the buttons. Miami Beach night clubs such as the Copa City or the Beachcombers would fold in 72-hours in Palm Beach, where the rich didn't get in that interesting condition by tossing their dimes around in reckless fashion.

The Palm Beach haute mode even complains about shelling out $6 for the weekly dinner dances at the Everglades club, probably the most beautiful club in the world. It would regard with financial horror the Copa City, designed by Norman Bel Geddes, where it takes $20 to buy a steak for two.

Obviously, a region as rich as the Great Miami area is bound to attract the envious and covetous attention of mobsters.

Miami Beach's own racketeers have shuddered for years lest the really big time gangsters from New York, Chicago and Detroit move in and take over the gambling.

Not only are the local racketeers worried at the moment, but so are the thousands of honest citizens who come here for the sun. For Miami Beach is the scene of a gangsters' convention.

Representatives of all the big mobs are here, including remnants of the Capone gang. (After all, Al maintained a winter home here in best machine gun tradition for many years.)

Miami is accustomed to its local mobsters. It doesn't want the big-time boys to muscle in, and the citizens are uneasy.

Down here, it ain't the heat, it's the hoodlums.

Farmer's Diary

Nature Is Awakening

By CALVIN A. BYERS

THERE'S a half moon in the night sky. There's a large evening star that shines in the west like a ball of silver. There's the Great Dipper at the northern rim of the valley—fallen down upon its handle.

There's a tiny indigo bunting perched on the wire near the shady road bank. There's a bluebird that warbles from shrubs and flies an indirect course. A robin chirps from the branching crown of the big maple. And mourning doves caress each other in the dust of the road and coo mournfully at sun-up.

Waves of blue smoke drift across the valley from grass fires that spread broad red tongues of flame and timidly climb the steep bank from the roadside ditch. The pasture brook is alive and the bright afternoon sun reflects on the ripples and divides the broad grassy plain into two equal parts.

Down by the marshes of Honey Creek, the peepers can't keep quiet any longer. With every February day that passes, the grandest portion of the year is awakening.

The pond ice has entirely melted. Long narrow ribbons of snow lie white and clean along the irregular parts of northern slopes and hollows. The banks of wooded hills hold fast their blanket of softened snow.

Streams trickle and plunge down from the tablelands. The breath from the fields has the odor of mould and fungus, the freshness of moving waters. Delicious soil fragrance seeps out from the pores of the healing earth.

Maple sap is flowing. From a long wooden spile a vagrant honey bee sips—lingering at the very edge of the dampness, where it evaporates.

The report of a woodcutter's axe echoes through the woods as the rank of wood for the evaporating pans grows larger and fire crackles loudly under the boilers while white steam spews from cracks in the siding of the weathered shed.

A flicker hammers heartily at a dozy limb of the maple tree. The cardinal whistles on the wildcherry by the spring. Hosts of English sparrows sputter and spat about the barn eaves. Far away, a mourning dove notes a sadness that seems like an echo.

"Hush! For the shadow of a flower
Upon a sun-warmed stone
Your "Highest Truth" with all its power
I'd willingly disown.

"The little things—the little things—
The things that fade and die—
The perfume of their passing brings
More than Eternity."

INSURANCE WOMEN FETE BOSSES AT THE SKY CLUB

Mrs. Jane Williams Reviews Her Book, "No Other Star," at Dinner Meeting Thursday.

By OLIVE GRESMER

INSURANCE WOMEN of Mansfield held their first annual "Bosses' night banquet" last evening at the Sky Club with 46 in attendance. The dinner tables, which were attractive with tall red lighted tapers in candelabra, and centered with bouquets of red and pink sweetpeas, were set in a U-shape. At each place were red programs on which were cartoons of business places and their bosses.

Preceding the dinner an informal hospitality hour was held. The program was opened by the introduction of guests and a toast to the bosses by Miss Nina Pollock, president of the local insurance women's organization. Response was given by Robert L. Ross.

CHERRY JAM HATCHETS . . . Patriotic snack treat.

Washington Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

CHERRY preserves will help make a festive snack for your family and friends on George Washington's birthday. If there are youngsters in your family they'll adore cutting out a paper hatchet pattern that in turn can be used to shape the bread shapes for the snacks. Spread each bread hatchet with a layer of softened cream cheese, then with one of cherry jam. Another bread hatchet may be added in sandwich style. You'll like this easy-to-make small-size recipe for the jam.

FEBRUARY CHERRY JAM

Ingredients: 1 one-pound package quick-frozen red sour pitted cherries, 2¼ cups sugar, 5 tablespoons powdered fruit pectin (mix contents of package thoroughly before measuring.

Method: Thaw cherries as directed on package; then drain, reserving juice. Chop cherries fine. Measure cherries and juice and add enough water to make 2¼ cups. Place in a large saucepan. Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding fruit over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. Add sugar at once. Bring to a full rolling boil for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into jelly glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 3 six-ounce glasses.

Coarsely crushed peanut brittle may be added to brown betty or folded into vanilla pudding or tapioca cream.

Families Need Place For Kiddies

Children are being discriminated against in nearly every city in the United States. In the midst of the worst housing shortage in America it is practically impossible to find landlords who will rent to couples with children.

In many apartments and houses the general rule is "children and dogs not wanted" says Howard Whitman writing in this month's Woman's Home Companion.

It is further revealed in the article that the five million families desperately in need of quarters could be housed if existing dwellings were used to their full effectiveness.

When stripped of its masquerade, the unpleasant basis of child discrimination is largely a greedy axiom: "Get the most for the least occupancy."

INTRIGUING FLAVOR. Spicy Washington Winesap apples, cucumbers, and celery make a refreshing salad combination with delicious flavor. Marinate separately in French dressing 2 cups unpeeled red apples cut into match-sticks, ½ cup chopped celery and ½ cup chopped cucumber. Moisten for ½ hour. Drain. Add mayonnaise to moisten. Serve on a bed of lettuce and garnish with watercress.

PILES Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves; instead, they are likely, if neglected, to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting, predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as: indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, rain in black and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief—written guarantee. My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

Write for reference and booklet "What Your Neighbors Say." Satisfied patients in over 200 cities, towns and villages.

Fast-Talker Gets $20 From Clerk

'Hidden Bills' Trick Reported to Police

Mrs. Ruth Miller, a clerk at the Camera Shop, 15 West Fourth street, was a victim of a fast-talking short change artist yesterday, police said.

The man, described by Mrs. Miller as wearing a grey top coat and dark brown horn-rimmed glasses, entered the store and asked for some larger bills for 20 one-dollar bills which he handed Mrs. Miller.

She gave him four $5 bills and started to count the ones. The man sealed an envelope while she was counting. She told him there were only 19 bills. He then took them from her and counted them rapidly after which he agreed that there were only $19.

The man said his friend outside had not given him all of the bills. He told her he would leave the four $5 bills which he said he sealed in the envelope with her while he went out and got the other one-dollar bill.

He left the store and didn't return. Mrs. Miller became suspicious and opened the envelope and found it was empty and that she was out $20.

She further described the man as between the ages of 20 and 25, five feet six inches tall, and weighing 140 pounds. Mrs. Miller said he was light complected and had blond hair.

According to one source, rheumatic diseases cost the American people about $750,000,000 a year in lost wages, relief payments and doctor bills.

Lake Captain Loses License For One Year
